

NEWCASTLE OFFICE

Getting Here ...

By Rail

Nearest rail station (and Metro) is Newcastle (Central Station) and the office is a five minute walk from here. For timetables see www.nationalrail.co.uk From Central Station leave by the main entrance and turn right, walking along Neville Street. After 500m there are traffic lights at the intersection with New Bridge Street. St Nicholas Cathedral is opposite and the entrance to St Nicholas Chambers behind the church.

By Bicycle

There are facilities near the office for securing bicycles.

By Road from the North

Follow the A167 (from the A1) into Newcastle towards the Tyne Bridge. Take the first slip road before crossing the river (just before the road passes under an office block, signposted Railway Station, leading to a large roundabout. Leave at the third exit (Moseley Street). For Dene Street Car Park take the first left at the traffic lights. The car park is approximately 100m on the left.

By Road from the South

Turn off the A1 before the Metrocentre (signposted Gateshead and Newcastle on to the A184. Stay in the left hand lane to go under the Redheugh Bridge via the roundabout. Follow the road towards Gateshead until you are forced to turn left onto the Tyne Bridge (A167). Take the first slip road after crossing the river leading to a large roundabout and leave at the first exit (Moseley Street). For Dene Street Car Park, take the first left at the traffic lights. The car park is approximately 100m on the left.

By Road from York (approx 10 miles)

Leave York on A64 (direction Leeds). Leave A64 at A659 signposted Tadcaster. Continue through Tadcaster, turn right at sign for Boston Spa. Golder House is on the left, behind Commer House.

Parking

There is limited metered on street parking adjacent to the office, but there are ample spaces in the city centre's many car parks, all of which require payment. Dene Street is the closest of these.
