

NEWPORT OFFICE

Getting Here ...

Newport is 12 miles from Central Cardiff and 25 miles from Bristol and is easily accessible by rail and road.

By Rail

Newport is linked by rail to most of the UK's major cities, with central London being but 1 hr 54 mins away by half hourly rail service. The railway station is a ten minute drive from the office and taxis are usually available from the station. Advance booking is not normally necessary or even possible, unless arriving early in the morning or late at night. Operators who may accept bookings include: Dragon 01633 216216, Capitol 01633 212121, Servu 01633 256666.

Information and tickets can be found at www.nationalrail.co.uk/

By Bus

There are frequent buses past the office, including a 12 minute link between Newport city centre and Langstone. Traveline Cymru has full details of all the bus routes and operators at: <http://www.traveline-cymru.info/>

By Bicycle

While there is no specified area for securing bicycles at Langstone Park, visitors who choose to cycle to the office may avail themselves of the onsite shower facilities.

By Road

Parking

There is plenty of free parking near the office at Langstone Park.

By Plane

Newport is a 2 hr journey to Heathrow and 45 mins to both Bristol & Cardiff airports.

Disabled Access/Facilities

There are full disabled facilities including parking, lift access and toilets.

Accommodation

Newport has a wealth of hotels, motels and guest houses. Within short walking distance of the office are a Premier Inn, Hilton and Holiday Inn. For the more independently minded we would recommend the Old Barn Inn: <http://www.theoldbarninn.com/> Tel 01633 413382
